1. Catalog Description

Concepts, models and ideologies of public administration within the larger political system. Course restricted to students in their final six units of graduate work.

2. Course Description

The capstone seminar in the Master of Public Administration program at Cal State Fullerton examines concepts, models, and ideologies of public administration within the larger political system.

3. Course Prerequisites

This course is restricted to students in their final six units of graduate work in the MPA program. Students must have completed all other required courses in the MPA program before enrolling in this course.

4. Course Objectives

This course is designed to accomplish five interrelated objectives:

- 1. Theory Examination: We will delve into the most important theories and literature in public administration, fostering a deep understanding of the field.
- Literature Review: You will complete a literature review in your concentration area, allowing you to specialize and delve deeper into a specific aspect of public administration. This preparation will be crucial for the general concentration portion of the comprehensive exams.
- 3. Writing Skills: This course will enhance your writing skills, focusing on clear, concise, and effective communication. This preparation will be crucial for the general theory portion of the comprehensive exams.
- 4. Critical Thinking: You will develop your critical thinking skills, learning to analyze and evaluate complex arguments and theories. This preparation will be crucial for the general theory portion of the comprehensive exams.
- Professional Development: This course will help you develop the skills and knowledge necessary for a successful career in public administration. You will learn about the latest trends and issues in the field and how to navigate the challenges of public service.

5. Course Materials

Required Texts

• Denhardt and Denhardt. The New Public Service: Serving, Not Steering. 4th ed. Routledge, 2015.

6. Technical Requirements

Pollak Library Resources

The Pollak Library provides a wide range of resources and services to support your research and learning. These resources include books, journals, databases, and research guides. You can access the library's resources online through the Pollak Library website. The library also offers research assistance through the Research Assistance Program. You can also access the library's online instruction guidelines for help with online learning.

Canvas

This course will be conducted using Canvas. You are responsible for checking Canvas regularly for announcements, assignments, and other course materials. You are also responsible for ensuring that your Canvas notifications are set to receive messages from the course.

Zoom

This course will include synchronous online sessions using Zoom. You are responsible for ensuring that you have the necessary equipment and internet connection to participate in these sessions.

Minimum Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, you will need the following minimum technical requirements:

- A computer or tablet with a reliable internet connection
- A webcam and microphone
- A modern web browser (Chrome, Firefox, Safari, or Edge)
- Microsoft Word or a compatible word processing program
- Adobe Acrobat Reader or a compatible PDF reader

Long- and short-term computer and internet access loans are available through the Student Genius Center.

7. Technical Problems

University IT Help Desk

Contact the instructor immediately to document the problem if you encounter any technical difficulties. Then contact the Student IT Help Desk for assistance. You can also call the Student IT Help Desk at (657) 278-8888, email, visit them at the Pollak Library North Student Genius Center, or log on to the my.fullerton.edu portal and click "Online IT Help" followed by "Live Chat".

Canvas Support

If you encounter any technical difficulties with Canvas, call the Canvas Support Hotline at 855-302-7528, visit the Canvas Community, or click the "Help" button in the lower left corner of Canvas and select "Report a Problem". The Student Support Live Chat is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

8. University Student Policies

In accordance with UPS 300.00, students must be familiar with certain policies applicable to all courses. Please review these policies as needed and visit this Cal State Fullerton website https://fdc.fullerton.edu/teaching/student-info-syllabi.html for links to the following information:

- 1. University learning goals and program learning outcomes.
- 2. Learning objectives for each General Education (GE) category.
- 3. Guidelines for appropriate online behavior (netiquette).
- 4. Students' rights to accommodations for documented special needs.
- 5. Campus student support measures, including Counseling & Psychological Services, Title IV and Gender Equity, Diversity Initiatives and Resource Centers, and Basic Needs Services.
- 6. Academic integrity (refer to UPS 300.021).
- 7. Actions to take during an emergency.
- 8. Library services information.

- 9. Student Information Technology Services, including details on technical competencies and resources required for all students.
- 10. Software privacy and accessibility statements.

9. Course Student Policies

Course Communication

All course announcements and communications will be sent via Canvas and university email. Students are responsible for regularly checking their Canvas notifications and email. Students are also responsible for ensuring that their Canvas notifications are set to receive messages from the course. Students are expected to check Canvas and their email at least once daily.

Response Time

I will strive to respond to all student emails and Canvas messages within 24 hours, except on weekends and holidays. If you do not receive a response within 24 hours, please send a follow-up message. If you do not receive a response within 48 hours, please send another follow-up message and contact me via phone or SMS text at (657) 278-4770.

Due Dates

All assignments are due on the date specified in the course schedule. Late assignments will only be accepted if prior arrangements have been made with the professor. Students must submit all assignments on time and in the correct format. Failure to submit an assignment on time may result in a grade penalty.

Alternative Procedures for Submitting Work

Students are expected to submit all assignments via Canvas. If you cannot submit an assignment via Canvas, please contact the professor to discuss alternative submission procedures.

Extra Credit

Extra credit opportunities will not be offered in this course. All students will be graded based on the same criteria and standards.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all in-person sessions. If you are unable to attend a session, please notify the professor in advance. If you miss a session, you are responsible for obtaining the information and materials covered in the session.

Retention of Student Work

Students are responsible for retaining copies of all assignments submitted in this course. Students should keep copies of all assignments until the end of the semester and verify that their assignments have been graded and returned before discarding them.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity. Any student found to have engaged in academic dishonesty will be subject to the sanctions described in the Academic Dishonesty Policy (UPS 300.021). Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, and submitting previously graded work without prior authorization. Students are expected to be familiar with the university's policy on academic dishonesty and to adhere to this policy in all aspects of this course. Any student who has questions about the policy should ask the professor for clarification.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious violation of academic integrity and will not be tolerated in this course. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, copying and pasting text from sources without proper citation, paraphrasing text from sources without proper citation, and submitting work that is not your own. Students are expected to properly cite all sources used in their work and to submit original work. Failure to do so may result in a failing grade for the assignment and further disciplinary action.

Written Work

All written work must be submitted in a professional format, including proper grammar, spelling, and punctuation. Written work must also be properly cited using the appropriate citation style. Students are expected to follow the guidelines for written work provided by the professor and to seek clarification if they have questions about the requirements.

AI Generated Text

Large language models, such as GPT-3.5, have made it easier to generate text that mimics human writing. While these models can be useful for generating ideas and content, they can also be misused to produce work that is not original. Students are expected to use Algenerated text responsibly and to ensure that all work submitted in this course is their own. Failure to do so may result in a failing grade for the assignment and further disciplinary action.

Written work will be submitted on Canvas and checked for plagiarism using Turnitin. Students are expected to submit original work and properly cite all sources. Failure to do so may result in a failing grade for the assignment and further disciplinary action.

10. University-wide Student Learning Outcomes

As a capstone course in the MPA program, this course is designed to help students achieve the following university-wide student learning outcomes:

- 1. Knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions including higher order competence in disciplinary perspectives and interdisciplinary points of view;
- 2. The ability to access, analyze, synthesize, and evaluate complex information from multiple sources and in new situations and settings;
- 3. Advanced communication skills:
- 4. The ability to work independently and in collaboration with others as artists, practitioners, researchers, and/or scholars;
- 5. The ability to determine and apply appropriate methods and technologies to address problems that affect their communities;
- 6. A commitment to social justice and ethical leadership within diverse communities and an interdependent global community.

11. Course Requirements

Annotated Bibliography, Synthesis, and Personal Reflection

During the first eight weeks of the course, students will complete an annotated bibliography, synthesis, and personal reflection on the assigned readings. The annotated bibliography will include a summary of the critical points of each reading, an analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of the arguments presented, and a reflection on the implications of the readings for public administration theory and practice. The synthesis will integrate the key points of the readings and identify common themes and divergent perspectives. The personal reflection will provide an opportunity for students to connect the readings to their own experiences and perspectives and consider the readings' implications for their future careers in public administration.

MPA Comprehensive General Area Essay Exam

Students will complete a comprehensive general area essay exam as part of the MPA program's comprehensive exam requirement. The exam will consist of three questions from which students will choose one to answer. The questions will be based on the course readings and discussions and will require students to demonstrate their understanding of public administration's key concepts, theories, and debates. The exam will allow students to synthesize their learning in the course and demonstrate their ability to think critically and write clearly about complex issues in public administration. Students who do not pass the exam on the first attempt will have the opportunity to retake the exam once during finals week.

Concentration Area Literature Review

Literature Review

Students will complete a literature review in their concentration area as part of the MPA program's comprehensive exam requirement. The literature review will examine the practical and theoretical issues related to a specific public administration topic and synthesize the essential findings and debates in the literature. The literature review will allow students to deepen their knowledge of their concentration area and develop their research and writing skills. A peer review process will be used to provide feedback on the literature review, and students will have the opportunity to revise and resubmit their work based on the feedback received. Peer reviews will be conducted anonymously on Canvas, and students will be assigned to review the work of their classmates. The final draft of the literature review will be submitted on Canvas and graded by the professor. The length of the literature review will be 15-20 pages, double-spaced, in APA or Chicago author-date format.

Objectives:

- Deepen knowledge in a specific concentration area.
- · Develop research and writing skills.
- Synthesize practical and theoretical issues in public administration.

Requirements:

1. Topic Selection:

- Choose a topic within your concentration area in consultation with the professor.
- Ensure the topic addresses both practical and theoretical dimensions.

2. Theoretical Book Requirement:

 Select a theoretical book related to your concentration area as part of your literature review.

 Include an analysis of the book's contribution to the field and how it relates to your topic.

3. Literature Sources:

Utilize a minimum of 15 peer-reviewed articles or books.

Incorporate recent studies to ensure up-to-date analysis.

4. Structure:

• Introduction: State the research question and its significance.

• Literature Review: Summarize and synthesize key findings and debates.

 Analysis: Critically evaluate the literature, identifying gaps and future research directions.

Conclusion: Summarize the main findings and their implications for public administration.

5. Peer Review:

Submit a draft for peer review on Canvas.

Provide constructive feedback to at least two classmates.

Revise your literature review based on the feedback received.

6. Final Draft Deliverable:

Submit a final draft of your literature review on Canvas.

• Ensure the final draft meets the requirements outlined in the assignment guidelines.

Submission:

Topic Outline: Week 12

Annotated Bibliography: Week 13

• Peer Review: Week 14

Final Draft: Week 15

12. Course Requirements Due Dates

The due dates for the course requirements are as follows:

- · Annotated Bibliography and Synthesis:
 - Due each week by 6:59 p.m. on Thursday
 - Personal Reflection: Due each week by 11:59 p.m. on Sunday
- MPA Comprehensive General Area Essay Exam:
 - Distributed on 10/31
 - Due on 11/7
- · Concentration Area Literature Review:
 - Topic Selection: Due on 11/14
 - Annotated Bibliography: Due on 11/21
 - Draft: Due on 12/5
 - Peer Review: Due on 12/12
 - Final Draft: Due on 12/19

13. Grades

Your work in this class will be graded based on four criteria:

- 1. Thoroughly complete each assignment, address all questions, and participate in class discussions.
- 2. Effective use of class materials (and other literature while researching your literature review topic).
- 3. Sophisticated substantive content and discussion rather than superficial.
- 4. Writing at the graduate level, including proper mechanics, grammar, syntax, and citation style.

Grading Scale and Grade Weights

The grading scale is shown in Table 1. Grades will be given based on the weights in Table 2.
